COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

In consideration of the publication of the above manuscript in IJEIRD, the author(s) hereby transfer and assign to IJEIRD and its publisher all copyright ownership rights in and to the manuscript, including but not limited to:

- Rights to publish, reproduce, distribute, archive, and communicate the work in print and electronic formats.
- Rights to include the work in databases, indexing services, repositories, and other digital platforms.
- Rights to license, store, and disseminate the published article worldwide.

This copyright transfer shall become effective only if the manuscript is accepted and published by IJEIRD.

RIGHTS RETAINED BY AUTHORS

Notwithstanding the copyright transfer, the author(s) retain the following rights:

1. The right to use the article for educational, teaching, and research purposes.
 2. The right to include the article in a thesis, dissertation, or academic portfolio.
 3. The right to use figures, tables, and excerpts from the article in future scholarly works authored by the author(s), provided proper acknowledgment of the original publication in IJEIRD is given.
 4. The right to share the published article link through personal websites, institutional repositories, and academic networking platforms in accordance with the journal's self-archiving policy.

WARRANTIES

The author(s) warrant that:

- The work is original and does not infringe any copyright, patent, trademark, or other proprietary rights.

- The work does not contain libelous or unlawful material.
- All co-authors have consented to this agreement.
- Ethical approval and informed consent, where applicable, have been obtained and documented.

The author(s) agree to indemnify and hold harmless IJEIRD, its editors, reviewers, and publisher against any claims arising from breaches of these warranties.
